Carol noted that staff and City Council have spent numerous hours on this topic and really want this committee to reach out to local community members for opinions. The current ordinance has been in place for 15 years until now, a residents pit bull breed got loose and was returned to them by the local police department. The local resident asked for a public hearing on the matter and conversation took place from there. The council is asking the committee to review the following 3 options and report back their findings to Michelle at City Hall no later than Tuesday afternoon.

Minutes Acceptance: Minutes of Dec 6, 2017 5:30 PM (Approval of Minutes)

OPTION 1: Leave the Ordinance as is and make no changes.

OPTION 2: Define Pit Bulls by specific qualifying breeds (American Pit Bull Terrier, American Staffordshire Terrier, Staffordshire Bull Terrier, Presa Canario, Dogo Argentina and Cane Corso) and add a section allowing fosters/rescues to temporarily have a pit bull in their care.
