VI. New Business:

1. Discussion by Jerry Logemann: History Interviews

Jerry Logemann was in attendance to encourage seniors to write down memories, real life history. Jerry expressed how when someone dies their life is just listed on a small pamphlet at the funeral home. Jerry would like to see these memories be immortalized at the museum for future generations to read. Jerry read a couple of his entries to the group to provide examples. Diane Woodford has some topics to help those unsure of what to write to get started.

2. Discussion and Potential Action Regarding Yard Signs to Advertise the Senior Center

Gary stated that during the political campaigns this year and seeing all the signage in yards he had an idea. Gary asked, what if we place Senior Center signs in yards to advertise. There was some hesitation from the group about how long those signs would be in the yards, for example it disrupts mowing capabilities. Gary was asking for possibly a committee chair to head up the idea campaign of how to grow the senior center foot traffic.

3. Update and Potential Action on Doors

Gary updated the committee on costs to update both doors in the building. To correct the back door so that it swings open correctly and also add a push bar the cost would be $670.00. To update the front door to become handicap accessible with push buttons the cost would be $2714.00. Motion to have Gary get a second bid and then choose the lowest and proceed with correcting both doors.

Motion by Richard Freeburg second by Carole Massey to Approve Update and Potential Action on Doors. Motion Carried. [Unanimous]

4. Discussion and Potential Action Regarding Bus Rental for Seniors to View Christmas Lights

The committee members discussed the idea of renting a bus to take seniors on a tour of Christmas Lights. Currently Gary has found that the SRTS bus could accommodate about 20 people for $2 a person. The limitations were that the bus has to be back in the bus garage no later than 7pm and during the outing it must make one stop somewhere. Rich Freeburg will speak with Embassy, Floyd Place and the Pioneer Valley Assisted Living to see if their buses could provide better accommodations. Gary will create a flyer and set the date for a Thursday evening before Christmas.

5. Discussion on New Activities

Diane Woodford mentioned that the 4-H group would like to host a Valentines Senior Dinner. Activities such as bingo and cards were discussed. The committee will try and see if they can round up anyone interested in coming to the center for game time.

6. Items for December Newsletter

Gary will be creating this month's newsletter. Topics that were addressed to include were the Christmas Light bus tour and Thursday afternoon card/games.

VII. Set the date for the next Senior Committee Meeting:
